RESERVE OF OFFICERS.

The attention of Reserve Officers is particularly directed to the following Regulation (Article 602, Royal Warrant):—

"An Army Reserve Officer shall report himself at the commencement of each year in writing to our Commander-in-Chief. Should he fail to do so he shall (unless he be an Officer retired from our Regular Forces with liability for further service in case of emergency) be removed from our Reserve of Officers at the end of the year in which he fails to report himself."

Reserve Officers reporting themselves in compliance with this Regulation, will, at the same time, furnish the Military Secretary with their addresses for the current year; and any subsequent change of address should be at once notified to the War Office.

[Officers whose names are printed in Italic are not available for Service with Regular Forces for Home Defence.]
[Officers marked thus † are voluntarily in the Reserve of Officers.]

Subscriptions and donations in support of the Charity will be thankfully received by Messrs. Cox & Co., Charing Cross, London, S.W.; by the Secretary, C. R. Low, Esq., to whom crossed cheques and Postal Orders on the Charing Cross Post Office should be made payable; or by the Superintendent Miss K. Bartlett, at the Home at Hampstead.

The Home was constructed and is equipped for 180 girls, and the desire of the Committee is to maintain the full complement.

The need of such an institution is apparent from the fact that there are on an average three candidates brought forward at each election to every one admitted.

The Committee earnestly appeal to a generous public to aid them in the support of the Charity. They also ask for the co-operation in the good work of every Regiment and Corps.

A contribution of but 6d. a year from each Non-Commissioned Officer and Man throughout the Service would provide for the support of a child from every Regiment.

The Home is open to visitors daily between 10 and 5, except on Saturdays and Sundays.

The Committee invite the inspection of all friends of the Soldier.
